

Dr. Aman Singh – BA (H) Economics, MA Economics, Ph.D in Economics

E: amans06@hotmail.com

Designation: Associate Professor in Economics, Department of Commerce at Sri Aurobindo E. College, University of Delhi

Achievements:

1. Worked as Junior Research Fellow in Jawaharlal Nehru University under a research project scheme on “Resource management and development problems of North East region of India from August 1983 to June 1985”
2. Qualified University Grants Commission National Test in 1985
3. Contributed research articles in international and national journals. Primary areas of research are: urban development, housing prices etc
4. Received distinguished research award of the college in 2019
5. Participated proactively in more than 30 webinars on various subjects and got certificates
6. Current research interests are in the areas of agricultural sustainability and development
7. Public speaking enthusiast and participated in various socio-cultural programs and functions
8. Beyond academics, actively engaged in social activities and also co-founded ‘Disha Educational and Social Care Organization’ - a society which works for child education for underprivileged children and conducts awareness programs for women empowerment.